Sports Medicine, Arthroscopy, Rehabilitation, Therapy & Technology (SMARTT)* is an open access, peer-reviewed online journal publishing articles on all aspects of general sports medicine, orthopaedic sports medicine and rehabilitation.

The journal focuses on sports traumatology, including the diagnosis and treatment of injury, arthroscopy and new technological advances in these areas. The journal aims to provide a forum to facilitate the rapid transmission of knowledge amongst researchers and health professionals working within these fields.

SMARTT is the official journal of the Asia Pacific Orthopaedic Society for Sports Medicine (APOSSM), and is also affiliated with the Japanese Orthopaedic Society for Knee Surgery, Arthroscopy and Sports Medicine (JOSKAS) and a further 5 societies.

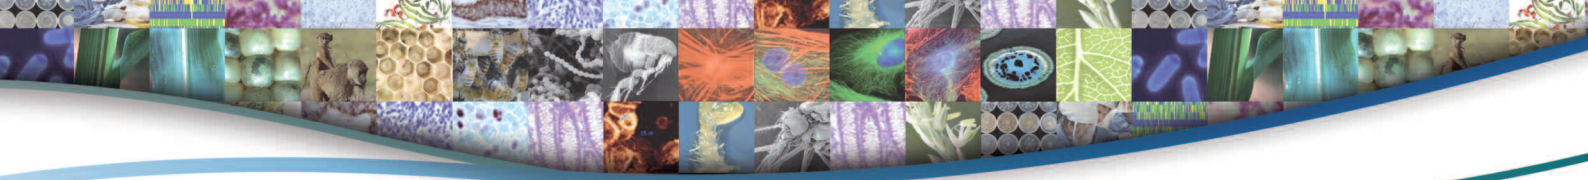

The journal considers the following article types: research articles, reviews, case reports, debate articles and short reports. For further details, see www.smarttjournal.com/info/about/.

Reasons for publishing in SMARTT:

- All articles published in the journal are open access; universally accessible online without charge.
- High visibility for your work - anyone with Internet access can read your article, free of charge.
- Included in PubMed - making your work easy to find, read and cite.
- Articles are published immediately upon acceptance.
- Authors retain the copyright of their articles.
- Electronic submission and peer-review makes the whole process of publishing your article simple and efficient.
- Publishing online means unlimited space for figures, extensive datasets and video footage.
- Professional formatting meets the standards expected by researchers.
